COURSE DESCRIPTION

Is the European Union a future of further “integration” or has the “EU disintegration”, especially after the results of the Brexit referendum and the generalized rise of Euro-scepticism, already begun its way? This course introduces the main aspects of the European Union (EU), covering the process of European evolution, institutions and actors, policies and policy making, and theories. First, students will become acquainted with the major historical determinants of the EU, from the first efforts to recover the economic situation after two world wars to the latest innovations fixed by the Lisbon Treaty. Secondly, students will be introduced to the main theories and conceptual approaches which have been used to explain such a unique political organisation as the EU is, being in between a federal state and a international organisation. Then, the main institutions and actors of the EU (Commission, Parliament, Council and Council of the Union, Europarties, Interest Groups; Courts) will be presented. A selection of relevant policies performed by the EU, with relative policy-making processes, will be dealt (EU’s foreign and defense policy, the single market, common agricultural policy, etc.). To conclude, the class will try to discuss and debate the most relevant issues which currently characterize the European Union (“Democracy deficit” and legitimacy of the EU, the EU and the economic crisis, comparison and relations between EU and US).

REQUIREMENTS:

Completing ALL required readings and regular attendance will be expected of all students. Material covered in class will not always be covered in the readings and vice versa; students will be responsible for all material regardless of where presented. Readings listed as “recommended” are necessary for a full understanding of the course’s subject matter; knowledge of these readings, however, will not be assumed in evaluating and grading tests and exams. Active participation in class discussions is strongly urged. Questions and comments will always be welcome.

Students will be asked to write reports on videos which the lecturer could present to the class.

SUBMISSION OF REPORTS/PAPERS

For in-class activities submission must be done by handing a HARD PRINTED or HAND WRITTEN version of the report to the instructor before the end of class. At-home activities have to be sent by EMAIL to the lecturer. Late submissions by up to two days will result in a two point (i.e., from 89 to 87) deduction from the final total score irrespective of the quality of the report.

Reports submitted three or more days late or not submitted will result in a 5 point (i.e., from 89 to 84) deduction from the total score, irrespective of the quality of the report.

GRADING and EXAMS

Grades will be based on six performances. Three will be done within the midterm exam and they weigh as follows: home essay: 14 points; in-class essay: 12 points; m/c questions 9 points. Other three will be done within the final exam and they weigh as follows: home essay: points 28; in-class essay: points 24; m/c questions: points 13.

The mid-term exam will be based on knowledge taught in lessons held before the mid-term; the final exam will be based on the WHOLE program taught in class.

Final scores will be translated into grades on the basis of a consideration of the class' overall performance. In any event, however, a full A grade will be awarded exclusively to students whose total scores are 90 and above. Likewise, a total final score of at least 60 points will be necessary to obtain a passing grade. Outstanding class participation and reports could result in a 5-point bonus. Poor class participation/reports AND lack of punctuality could each result in a 5-point penalization.

Extra-activities during the semester may can outlined by the lecturer during the class and may give the students point bonuses.

ATTENDANCE AND OTHER CLASS POLICIES

A) Attendance to all CSU courses is mandatory. One unexcused absence is allowed during the semester but more than one unexcused absence will lower your grade as follows (excused absences will be accepted for medical reasons or proved emergencies): TWO unexcused absences, lowers one letter grade (i.e., B to C); THREE unexcused absences, lowers by 2 letter grades (i.e., A to C). More than FOUR unexcused absences will result in failure of the course.

Writing, in advance, an email to the lecturer for any failure in attending the class is welcome.

B) In order not to disrupt the class, punctuality is required. Students are expected to be in class at the beginning of the class hour; any delay exceeding ten minutes will be considered an absence.

C) Dates of mid-term and final exams cannot be changed for individual travel plans or personal needs. Missing the midterm or the final exam will mean failure of the course.

D) During the academic year photocopies and other material may be distributed in class by the instructors. Students who were not in class are responsible for getting the material from their classmates and making their own photocopies.

E) Use of laptop computers in class is not permitted, unless previously approved by the professor.

F) Eating is NOT allowed in class. Drinking water is allowed.

G) Cellular phones must be turned off or placed on silent mode during class.

POSSIBLE ADDITIONAL COSTS

Theater or cinema admissions for one or two films (about € 10 each)

Transportation and admission costs for a possible site visit (to be determined, but no more than € 25) (visit to the European University Institute or to the “State of the Union” in Palazzo Vecchio)
