Course description:

The course aims at providing the instruments for understanding and interpreting the cultural, political, economic and social history of Europe from late 18th century until World War II. Lessons will start analyzing the spread of liberalism and democratic ideals, the birth of socialism, the evolution of reactionary, conservative and authoritarian ideologies and movements. They will go on focusing on the social and economic crisis between the end of 19th and the begin of 20th centuries that led to World War I. The following dissolution of the Austrian, Russian and Ottoman Empires, and their aftermaths on the international relations will be dealt with, as well. The Communist revolution in Russia together with the crisis of liberal regimes in Europe and the seizure of power in Italy and in Germany by Fascism and Nazism will be dealt with particular attention. The last part of the course will focus on World War II, the Resistance movements, the rebirth of democracy in Western Europe, the Communist seizure of power in Central and Eastern Europe.

Course requirements:

- 1) Active participation in the class and regular readings of assigned texts;
- 2) One mid-term test, made up by multiple choice questions and a brief essay to write in class;
