Course description

This course focuses on the study of more advanced grammar structures and vocabulary of Italian aimed to provide students with the ability to move from familiar material to more complex constructions, backed by a more nuanced understanding and ability to understand several aspects of Italian culture. We will study grammar units, drills, and conversation on topics based on the grammar units. In addition to regular exercises and activities, students will be asked to submit short written compositions to consolidate their writing and research skills. Homework will be either checked in class or completed at home.

CSU GE category - C1, C2 or C elective

Required books/readings

La Grassa, M., Delitala, M., Quercioli, F. (2013). L'italiano all'università 2. Edilingua. (21,02 euro)
Additional readings and web resources may be given during the semester (if applicable).

General Course Requirements

You are responsible for the weekly readings, the information given to you in class, on handouts and via email. Part of your grade will be determined by regular attendance, participation in class discussions and active engagement in all activities of this course. Make sure to check your email on a regular basis for updates and additional information.

Class Site Visits

There might be occasional site visits in town. These will be announced to students (in class or via email) as the course progresses.

Learning objectives

Students will consolidate and develop their vocabulary. They will study grammatical and syntactic structures of different complexity. Learners will work on their written and oral skills.

Learning outcomes

At the end of the semester, students will be able to speak Italian with sufficient structural accuracy and vocabulary in order to satisfy social and practical needs. They will be able to discuss on the topics covered throughout the course. Learners will also be able to manage and understand different kinds of inputs.

Grades and exams

Your grade will be determined by the following assignments:

- Class participation* 35 %
(attendance, punctuality, and engagement)
- Tests (test 1, midterm, test 3) 35 %
- Final 30 %

Remember that more than two unexcused absences, failure to complete your homework regularly, and lack of effort in speaking Italian will be considered reasons for lowering the grade.*

The dates of the exams cannot be changed to adjust to personal needs.

CSU ATTENDANCE POLICY 2019-2020

General Attendance Policy 2019-2020 (for classes that meet twice a week)

Attendance to all CSU courses is mandatory. Two unexcused absences are allowed during the semester but more than two unexcused absences will lower your grade (excused absences will be accepted for serious medical reasons or emergencies) as follows: 3 unexcused absences, lowers one letter grade; 4 unexcused absences, lowers two letter grades; 5 unexcused absences, lowers 3 letter grades. More than five unexcused absences could result in failure of the course.

In order not to disrupt the class, punctuality is required. Students are expected to be in class at the beginning of the class hour; any delay exceeding five minutes will be considered an absence.

Dates of mid-term and final exams can not be changed for individual travel plans or personal needs. Students should take note of the dates and hours of the midterm and final exams and plan their trips after the last exam. It is important to inform friends and relatives about these exam dates so that no tickets are purchased for you that will interfere with these exam dates. Missing the midterm or the final exam could result in failure of the course.

During the academic year photocopies and other material may be distributed in class by the instructors. Students who were not in class are responsible for getting the material from their classmates and making their own photocopies.

Other class policies:

Use of the computer in class is restricted to oral presentations, unless previously approved by the professor.

Eating is NOT allowed in class.

Cellular phones must be turned off or placed on silent mode during class.
